

Graduate Program in English and American Literature

This program offers academic training and mentoring within a supportive environment to students who wish to pursue advanced studies in British and American literature and linguistics. It serves the interests of students who hope to develop the skills and English proficiency they need to analyze complex texts and to respond to those texts in a sophisticated manner. To ensure that their responses are well grounded, the program will help students acquire the historical knowledge they need to react critically and intelligently. There is a fundamental focus upon the ability to analyze and identify core issues, and present relevant solutions, which are keys to success in any field.
